

Credit Transfer Factsheet

BACHELOR OF LAWS (HONOURS) (LLB) R81

The Open University

If you have previously studied elsewhere and your studies were completed at the same academic level as OU modules, we may be able to award you credit transfer towards an OU qualification: this will reduce the number of OU modules you have to study to complete your OU qualification. You need to decide which OU qualification you wish to study for with us before you can apply for credit transfer.

This factsheet tells you about transferred credit from elsewhere into this particular OU qualification.

Please note that:

- We can only confirm how much credit you can be awarded once you have made a formal Credit Transfer application which has been considered by an OU assessor.
- Your previous studies must be at the same, or a higher, academic level, and carry at least as many credit points, as the OU study from which you are to be exempted. More details about credit points and levels can be found on our website at www.open.ac.uk/credit-transfer.
- We will award you as much credit transfer as possible, but this may be less than the maximum available towards this OU qualification. This is because the amount of credit transfer you can be awarded depends on several factors (such as the number of credits you achieved and how closely your previous study matches the OU modules).

We will also assess your study towards our Open degree, as you may be eligible for more credit towards that degree. To find out more about our Open degree programme, please see: <http://www.open.ac.uk/courses/qualifications/gd>.

Credit transfer towards the Bachelor of Laws (Honours) (LLB) (Qualification Code: R81)

Maximum credit transfer available towards this qualification

The maximum number of credits that can be transferred towards this qualification is shown in the table below. The actual number of credits that you are awarded will be determined when your application for credit transfer has been assessed and may be less than the maximum shown below. At Stage 1, credit transfer is awarded in multiples of 60 credits; at Stage 2, it is awarded in multiples of 30 credits.

Total number of credits required for this qualification	360 credits
Maximum credit transfer	240 credits
Minimum number of OU credits to be completed	120 credits

Time limits towards this qualification

The amount of time that you have to complete your qualification will depend on the amount of credit that you have left to complete once your credit transfer award has been made. The table below shows the number of years you will have left to complete if you have the following number of credits left to complete your qualification.

Number of credits left to complete	Number of years to complete qualification
120 credits left to complete	7 years
150 – 180 credits left to complete	9 years
210 – 240 credits left to complete	12 years
270 – 300 credits left to complete	14 years
330 credits left to complete	16 years

These time limits apply to completing the study required for the Bachelor of Laws (Hons) degree by any of the three routes. These are:

- the academic route (academic LLB), for students not intending to enter the legal profession
- the Solicitors Qualifying Examination route (SQE LLB) for students intending to become solicitors in England and Wales
- the Foundations of Legal Knowledge route (FLK LLB) for students wishing to become barristers in England and Wales, or solicitors or barristers in Northern Ireland.

If you choose the third of these routes, you must take account of the information below under the heading 'FLK LLB – additional time constraint'.

If you are awarded credit transfer, then we will inform you of the date that your time limit starts and the number of credits you have left to complete in your chosen qualification. However, if you have already completed any OU modules that are eligible to count towards this qualification, and if you choose to include any of them, your start date will be the start date of the earliest OU module that you choose to include. The number of years that you have to complete your qualification will still depend on the amount of OU credit that you have left to complete given your credit transfer award (see table above). You may find that including an earlier OU module(s) gives you no time, or insufficient time, to complete the qualification, in which case you will not be able to include that module(s).

Age of previous study

For this qualification we can consider previous study completed up to 16 years ago for credit transfer. We will calculate the age of your previous study using the date we receive your completed application with all required supporting evidence.

Study for which you could be awarded credit transfer

You can apply for credit transfer towards this OU qualification if you have any of the eligible previous study shown on our website www.open.ac.uk/credit-transfer.

When we assess your application for credit transfer, we will look at how similar the study you completed is to the OU modules in this qualification. If your study is in a related subject area, then how much credit you are awarded is likely to depend in part on how closely the subjects of your previous studies match those of the modules in this qualification.

What do I need to provide with my application?

Every application must be supported by official evidence, usually in the form of an academic transcript and a certificate. Please see the application form and the FAQs on our website for more information about the evidence you will need to provide.

If your prior learning was not at a university in England or Wales, you will also need to provide details of the syllabus/learning outcomes for all the courses that you hope will enable us to award you credit transfer.

FLK LLB – additional time constraint

If you need a Law degree that fulfils the requirements for the academic stage of training for a barrister in England and Wales, or a barrister or solicitor in Northern Ireland, all your OU study must be completed within six years of the date that you began studying the oldest module for which we have awarded you transferred credit.

You no longer need such a degree if you wish to become a solicitor in England and Wales. If this is your aim, we recommend that you study towards the SQE LLB.

The Open University cannot guarantee that an OU LLB by any route that includes exemptions from any Level 2 module will fulfil the requirements of any professional body. It is your responsibility to check, before taking advantage of any exemptions that the OU offers to you, whether the OU LLB that you hope to gain will meet the requirements of any professional body that regulates any profession that you may wish to enter. You are strongly advised to seek individual advice before making decisions that may affect your potential career in the legal profession.

Unique study rule

For each OU qualification, you must include an amount of OU study that is unique to that particular qualification (credit from study completed at the OU which has not previously been counted towards another OU qualification). Full details are given in the degree regulations, in the Qualification Regulations section of the qualification description: <http://www.open.ac.uk/courses/law/degrees/bachelor-of-laws-llb-r81>.

Further information you will need

To find out more about credit transfer, and to download a Credit Transfer application form, visit our Credit Transfer website: www.open.ac.uk/credit-transfer. This site also tells you what previous study can be used for credit transfer and explains in detail how the application process works.

You should read this Credit Transfer factsheet in conjunction with the qualification description which can be found at:

<http://www.open.ac.uk/courses/law/degrees/bachelor-of-laws-llb-r81> which

- Contains the University regulations
- Gives information on the structure of your chosen OU qualification

Have you considered our BA/BSc Open degrees?

You may be interested in finding out more about our unique Open programme:

- It gives you a huge choice in terms of the subjects and modules you study to make up your Open degree: you can take modules from any of our undergraduate subjects.
- Currently the only restriction on the age of credit counting to the Open degree is that the study must have been completed in the last 16 years.
- Previous study completed in any subject area can be transferred into the Open degree.

You can find out more from The Open Programme website www.open.ac.uk/courses/open-qualifications

If you require a version of these notes in an alternative format, such as large print, please contact us.

This factsheet has been prepared by the Credit Transfer Centre at The Open University.

You are welcome to contact us regarding your application for credit transfer. However, please note that we are unable to advise you how much credit transfer you could be awarded before we have assessed your formal application.

You may find that your query has already been answered at www.open.ac.uk/credit-transfer.

E-mail: credit-transfer@open.ac.uk Website: www.open.ac.uk/credit-transfer

The Open University is incorporated by Royal Charter (RC 000391), an exempt charity in England & Wales and a charity registered in Scotland (SC 038302). The Open University is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority in relation to its secondary activity of credit broking.

While every effort is made to ensure accuracy, the information in this publication may change in the light of altered regulations, policy or other constraints.

Copyright © 2022 The Open University